March 7, 2013 – Westport, CT – The Chad A. Jacobs Memorial Foundation and the John Patrick Flanagan Foundation, announced today that they have jointly founded the United in Hope Scholarship for students who have lost a parent to cancer.

Graduating high school seniors who attend school in Fairfield or Westport are eligible to apply. Criteria for the scholarship includes:

- § Loss of Parent to Cancer
- § Financial Need
- § Attends High School in Fairfield or Westport, Connecticut
- § Character of Applicant
- § Academic Goals and Performance

Please visit <http://www.jpff.org/scholarship.html> or email unitedinhopescholarship@gmail.com for more information and to receive a scholarship application. The application deadline is April 1, 2013.

The United in Hope Scholarship is funded by the John Patrick Flanagan Foundation (“JPFF”) and the Chad A. Jacobs Memorial Foundation (“CAJF”). These memorial foundations were established in memory of John Flanagan and Chad Jacobs shortly after John and Chad lost their lives to cancer in 2008 and 2010, respectively.

Karen Jacobs, Chairperson of CAJF, commented on the scholarship announcement, “Losing a parent to cancer is devastating enough, but adding the financial burden often incurred by this disease and the death of a parent can be debilitating to a family. Our goal in creating the United in Hope Scholarship is to help students afford college and become all that they can be.”

About The Chad A. Jacobs Memorial Foundation

The Chad A. Jacobs Memorial Foundation was established in loving memory of Chad Jacobs who passed away from cancer on June 11, 2010 at the age of 45. CAJF’s mission is to provide academic and athletic scholarships to families in financial need from the surrounding community.
