FOUNDATION HONORS FLANAGAN

Members of ICR, Westport, Conn., in collaboration with Amanda Flanagan, widow of ICR executive John Flanagan, have set up the John Patrick Flanagan Foundation in his memory.

Flanagan, a founding partner of ICR, died Dec. 24, 2008, at his home in Fairfield, Conn., at the age of 44 after a bout with cancer.

More than 15 members of ICR and 57 members of Flanagan's family took part in the Fairfield Half Marathon and 5K race on June 28 to raise funds for the Foundation.

Each staffer made a commitment and trained in order to pay tribute to Flanagan, while maintaining everyday client calls, work and duties, said the firm.
